

Food, wine and agribusiness

GROW. INNOVATE. SUCCEED.

South Australia's ecosystem.

Here in South Australia we're proud to have fostered a strong relationship between government, industry and academia. Over time, these key relationships have cultivated a highly-skilled workforce, developed cutting-edge research, and delivered labour costs which are around 10 per cent below the Australian average. This competitive environment supports highly profitable investments and makes South Australia a place where your business can truly innovate and grow.

Food, wine and agribusiness in our state

South Australia provides an ideal environment for innovation and investment for international food and beverage companies seeking growth.

The state has excellent staff retention rates, is a gateway to Asia and offers excellent business support including stringent legal and biosecurity systems.

South Australia is a leading agricultural region producing premium quality food and wine for global exports.

The state's reputation for high-quality produce and some of the world's best wines is renowned. South Australia has the know-how and clean, green produce to feed demand for differentiated food from Asia and other global markets.

South Australia's entrepreneurial ecosystem is translating into new agricultural technology opportunities with innovative products adding value to the food sector right around the world.

How we can support you

The South Australian Government has a framework for providing assistance to industry through funds including:

- A$150 million Regional Growth Fund
- A$100 million Economic and Business Growth Fund
- A$28 million Research, Commercialisation and Start Up Fund.

In addition to this support, there is a A$203 million Skilling South Australia fund to create an extra 20,800 apprenticeships and traineeships. This will help grow business, the economy and provide opportunities for young people in South Australia.

The South Australian Landing Pad is a program established to support eligible companies looking to make their first investment in South Australia. Up to A$80,000 per eligible business case will be available.

For local industry looking to grow, there is the South Australia Export Accelerator grant, an initiative to assist small to medium sized businesses in South Australia to grow in international markets and create jobs.

The Department for Trade, Tourism and Investment regularly leads both inbound and outbound trade missions – making sure industry connects globally.

Why South Australia?

South Australia's diverse climate allows it to grow and produce a wide variety of foods.

- dairy
- fruit and vegetables
- viticulture
- seafood
- grain crops

Adelaide, South Australia is the gateway to 18 distinctive, internationally recognised wine regions, with more than 200 cellar doors within an hour's drive of the Adelaide city.

South Australia is a gateway to Asia.

South Australia has a strong culture of innovation and research collaboration. Significant investment through three world-class, public universities and other specialised institutions provide opportunities for food producers and agribusiness to access markets and respond to new challenges.

Get in touch

South Australia's Department for Trade, Tourism and Investment has experienced professionals who understand your business requirements and priorities.

www.dtti.sa.gov.au

Contact:

The Department for Trade,
Tourism and Investment

P +61 (8) 8303 2400

E dtti.reception@sa.gov.au

